ELECTION DAY – NOVEMBER 6, 2007

Although this is considered an off-election year, every election, including local elections, is vital to both our state and nation. It is important for all registered voters to go to the polls this year and express their freedom of choice through voting. The biggest reason people give for not voting is that they do not know enough about the candidates and the issues. Please take some time to get informed by contacting local candidates – especially those running for Local Board of Education positions – and inquiring as to where they stand on important issues.

To receive information on specific state issues, contact Ohio Roundtable at 1-800-522-VOTE.

REMEMBER: Responsible citizenship is no accident! Get informed and vote on November 6th.
